Expectations when working with your athlete...

- Initiate athlete participation. Some athletes might need to be talked into playing or invited to play.
- Be enthusatic while working with your athlete - don't just stand around. Smile and enjoy yourself. If you have fun, he/she will too.
- Encourage participation and team cooperation- be a cheerleader for all the athletes.
- Treat all athletes with respect.
- Be a role model- lead by example.
- If your athlete runs or leaves the area, follow him or her.
- Always be with and supervise your athlete. If he/she needs to go to the restroom, let a head coach know. Don't send anyone by themselves anywhere.
- Your main socialization should be with your athlete - not with the other volunteers. Assisting your athlete comes first.

IMPORTANT

Some of our athletes have seizure disorders or other health concerns. If you will be working with one of these athletes, we will let you know. Regardless, if you see any athlete having a seizure or having a medical concern, (1) call for help right away, (2) move all athletes to another area away from the individual with the concern and (3) don't panic. We have people who are knowledgeable and trained on how to deal with seizures and other medical issues.

By signing below, you are saying that you have read and agreed to the above expectations and code of conduct.
